

around town

John Carzis, owner of Hugo's Lighthouse for 32 years, plans this summer to build a restaurant and condominiums on Rowe and Foster wharves along Boston's waterfront. The project will be housed in two buildings 15 stories high and the restaurant will overlook the harbor and seat 350. The move was welcomed as a major real estate purchase involving the rehabilitation of the Boston waterfront.

Jack Peckham, president of the Mass. Association of Realtors, reported at the recent installation banquet, a 5 to 10 year real estate boom. A record 240 people attended the meeting to hear Peckham's prediction that real estate is a "shelter from inflation."

On Feb. 9 a luncheon and musicale will be held by the Friends of the South Shore Conservatory. Cohasset Friends who support the Conservatory by raising funds for "Cedar Hill," their spacious new quarters, scholarships, concert sponsorship and gallery exhibits are Mr. and Mrs. David Burnham, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Woods and the Sheldon Ripleys.

Elder Dana Doggett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Doggett of Hugh Strain Road, is serving as a Mormon missionary in Central America. In a recent letter to his parents, Dana told of a trip to the San Blas Islands off Panama, a "tropical paradise of 700 Cuna Indians who live in thatched huts and travel by dugout canoes." After his mission, Elder Doggett will return to his studies at Brigham Young University in Utah.

Peter Cook, a Cohasset High School Senior and award winning student at the South Shore Conservatory of Music will play a trombone solo accompanied by the Hingham Conservatory Orchestra. The performance will be in the Young Peoples' Concert "String Along With Us" on Feb. 10 at Notre Dame Academy Auditorium.

The Cohasset Go-Getters, a group of volunteers for the Channel 2 Auction for 1979 are organized under the direction of Mrs. Jane Lavin.

Earl Foell of Black Horse Lane, has been named editor of the Christian Science Monitor. Mr. Foell is a Texas native and graduate of Principia College. He won the Rudolph Elie Award of the Boston Press Club for a series on urban problems. He was given the Sigma Delta Chi Deadline Club award for the best U.N. coverage.

The South Shore Association for Retarded Citizens will hold their Snow Ball Feb. 10. The SSARC serves Cohasset and John Connelly is the chairman of the dance, to be held at the South Shore Country Club in Hingham.

The Plymouth County Board of Realtors inducted their officers and board of directors for 1979. Mary Pecce of Cohasset will continue as director and Robert Mullin, also of Cohasset, is president of the Plymouth County Multiple Listing Service.

F. Allen Weisenfluh of Summer Street, a trustee of Cohasset Savings Bank, president of the Sandy Beach Association and member of the Cohasset Board of Assessors, has been elected second vice president Bonds, of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co.

David Hurlbut of Forest Notch has been elected vice president of special services at the John Hancock Insurance Co. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries.

A farewell luncheon was held at the Greenhouse Restaurant for Marsha Sieve who is leaving Cohasset for four years in Italy. Marsha was the president of the Cohasset Newcomers. The luncheon was given by the Newcomers board members. Those attending were: Rita Strong, Caroline Horn, Jean Dormer, Nina Bird, Ruth Nedrow, Charlotte Reilly and Joan Failing.

Although it has been a mild winter in Cohasset, Mass., Cohasset Minnesota, has been in a deep freeze. Temperatures in this sister city have hit 45 degrees below zero. The namesake community located on the Mississippi River has been hit by the infamous midwest storms but the citizens in this cold climate are not fazed by the sub-zero temperatures. They bundle up in thermals and snowmobile suits and continue their pursuits of ice fishing, skiing and snowmobiling.

The South Shore Club met at the home of Mrs. Donald Evans of North Main Street. Catherine Smith, Chairman of the Smith College Theatre Department was the guest speaker.

READY, ON THEIR MARK and set to go in downhill sled race near their hom on Fair Oaks Road are Glan Bernstein, left, 9, and Andrew Thornton, 8.

(Greg Derr photo)

COHASSET VILLAGE OFFICE 13 Elm St Cohasset 383-1882		BOUND BROOK OFFICE 400 Gannett Rd North Scituate 545-6100
Hours Mon.-Thurs. 9-3 Friday 9-6 Home of 24 Hour Banking by the Sea		Hours Mon.-Wed. 9-4 Thurs. & Fri. 9-6 Saturday 9-1 SEABANK 24

9.307%

At this rate everyone will want a Money Market Certificate.

This rate is effective through February 14, 1979.

It's a good time to ask about our 6-month Money Market Certificates.

It's a good time to ask about our other Savings Plans, too.

Minimum deposit $10,000.

The rate shown is an annual rate; however, the maturity of the Certificate is 26 weeks, and the rate is subject to change at renewal. This offer may be withdrawn at any time without prior notice.

If funds are withdrawn before maturity, Federal regulations require that the interest rate be lowered to the then current passbook rate and that 90 days' interest at that rate be forfeited.

South Shore Bank Member F.D.I.C.

132 FRONT ST. SCITUATE HARBOR MA. 02066
545-2480

Register Now For Carving Lessons

Thursday Afternoons 2:30 - 4:30
10 Week Course